ok Thank you Annie. My cell phone number is [REDACTED] Should I take yours to let you know if we don't go to trial on it?

That's fine. But I have a Norfolk Superior case that may need me in the Thurs. AM (if it goes forward today).

Hi,

I just spoke with Elizabeth O'Brien, I think the Certificate of Analysis Number is [REDACTED] I understand Annie's schedule is very full. Would it be ok if I put her on call for 4/28, the [REDACTED] trial? The case may resolve itself short of trial.

Thank you,
Caren

Hi ADA Donovan, Item [REDACTED] is for defendant [REDACTED] It was analyzed 1/28/2010 by Stacey Feiden and Annie Dookhan. If this is the item you need for your case next Thursday, Annie may be able to testify for her' own and Stacey's part of the analysis. You have to tell us what lab number/s (Certificate of Analysis Number) you are interested in. If you have any questions, please contact me or Annie at the laboratory? Thanks

ADA Donovan, What is the Laboratory Certificate number for this case? There may be another chemist associated with it that can testify. CS

Hi Charles,

Is there a chemist I could summons in Stacey's place?

Hi ADA Donovan, The laboratory received a summons for Stacey Feiden, for April 28, 2011 in regards to Comm. v. [REDACTED] Stacey is no longer working at the laboratory. There was no sample number with the summons and I don't believe another chemist was summonsed. Please let me know how you would like to proceed with this case. Thanks
